

Cumberland Fungus Fest - Scavenger Hunt

Hi! Here is how it works.

- Answer the questions below in the spaces provided.
- But your name and email on the bottom
- Upload any photos to Instagram or Facebook. Tag #cumberlandfungusfest and #keepcumberlandwild
- OR email photos to info@cumberlandforest.com
- Send the completed hunt to info@cumberlandforest.com (scan or photograph)
- OR send via private IG or FB message to Cumberland Forest
- Win cool stuff – Cumberland Forest shirts, Harmonic Arts product, CBC and Riders Pizza GC's and more!

1. The glacial erratic on this trail is a reminder of the mile of ice that once pressed down on the landscape:
_____. Tag a pic.
2. Cumberland's drinking water flows from this lake: _____
3. This matriarch of the trails was named for a locally famous skeet shooter: _____ Tag a pic
4. This road ran through Cumberland's Chinatown. It's now the name of this Creekside trail: _____ Tag a pic
5. Busy beavers live in this lodge viewed best from this wetland trail: _____ Tag a pic
6. 31 cherry trees now grow where what used to stand? _____ Tag a pic
7. This funky forest organisms is able to live freely as single cells, but can aggregate together to form multicellular reproductive structures: _____ Tag a pic
8. Algae and fungi come together to create this composite organism: _____ Tag a pic
9. This park was once the site of Cumberland's sawmill and a major coal mine. _____ Tag a pic
10. What originally travelled along the Wellington Colliery Trail behind the Village? _____
11. This furry species at risk eats a lot of mosquitoes in the wetlands: _____
12. This invasive plant is climbing the cottonwoods on the Wellington Colliery Trail: _____
13. Sometimes we forget about 'leave no trace', lot of examples out there: _____ Tag one
14. This ancient tree is used for bow making. It can be found along the creek and at the foot of Bronco's Perseverance: Name the tree: _____ Tag a pic
15. These little critters leave middens in the forest after dropping outside bits of the cone. Name the critter: _____ Tag a pic of a midden

NAME:

INSTAGRAM HANDLE:

EMAIL: